

DRIVE IN, DRIVE OUT.

Metro Detroit's freeway system is considered one of the most efficient in the country, making it easier to get around the area's nearly 2,000-plus square miles.

Many hotels provide shuttles to and from Detroit Metro Airport, as well as to area attractions, convention spaces and stadiums for major events. A large directory of the most familiar car rental services can also be found.

The Detroit People Mover, an elevated, automated light rail system, loops downtown's central business district with 13 stations at critical points of interest, including TCF Center, the GM Renaissance Center and the concentrated entertainment area known as Greektown. The QLine became operational in 2017. The 3.3-mile circulating streetcar runs along Woodward Avenue, with 20 stations serving 12 downtown stops.
